By Car:

From the West:

Proceed on the A69 towards Newcastle, and follow the A186 signed City (West). After 2 miles you pass the General Hospital and take the next left signed Arthurs Hill/RVI. The road bears right and comes to a set of traffic lights. At the traffic lights turn right and continue straight down the hill. By this time you should be able to see the stadium. At the end of the road turn right and the stadium is on the left half a mile further on.

From the South:
From the A1(M), after Washington Service the motorway divides - keep left following the signs for the A1. You should be able to see the Angle of the North ahead. Take the centre or right hand lane and continue following signs for Newcastle, continue for a further 3 miles before turning off onto the A184 signed Gateshead/Newcastle (Centre). Continue for 1.5 miles then take the right hand lane signed A189 to Newcastle. This takes you over the Redheugh Bridge, you will see the stadium towering above the city skyline, which leads into St. James' Boulevard. After 0.5 miles turn left at Gallowgate roundabout and stadium is on the right.

Nearest Metro Station: St James Metro Station (literally right outside the ground)

Train: Newcastle Central Station is a 10 minute walk to the ground.
Flying: There is a Metro station incorporated into the airport which takes 15 minutes to get into the city center
